The Online Auction

Whether you want to jumpstart your auction bidding or you can't make it to Auction Night at UUCF, you can participate in the Annual Auction by bidding online. The Online Auction, similar to eBay, opened Wednesday, Feb. 21. At that time, you received an email with all the information you need to log on. The Online Auction will close on Friday, March 2. Watch for the closing email and your last chance to place those online bids.

Everything that has been donated to the Annual Auction is included in the Online Auction with the exception of raffle items and Live Auction items. You can win some donations by having the highest bid online. However, some items can only be won during the TribUte to MUSical Theater Auction on March 3 at UUCF. The highest active and winning bids at the close of the Online Auction will be transferred to the bid sheets on Auction Night.

On Auction Night

Attire for the evening is limited only by your imagination. Come in costume from your favorite musical theater show, in stage-hand's garb or dress as if you're out for a night at the theater. What you wear doesn't matter, just come ready to have fun and bid to win!

Check-in will begin in the Music Room. Please enter through the outside Music Room door and follow the signs. There will be tables for those who have pre-registered and for those who still need to register. Either way, the Check-In team will have your Auction Night bidder number and bid stickers all ready for you. Pre-register for faster check-in!

This is one of the liveliest events of the year. Expect great music from our Auction Houseband, fantastic food, premium wine and drinks as well as noise, crowds around the bid cards, friendly competition and great conversations interrupted by mad dashes to the bid cards as we count down the final seconds of the Silent Auction Sections.

Schedule of Events

- 5:45 p.m. Doors Open for Registration; House Band Performs!
- 6 p.m. Silent Auction Sections OPEN for Bidding!
- 7 p.m. Silent Auction Section 1: CLOSES!
- 8 p.m. Silent Auction Section 2: CLOSES!
- 8:10 p.m. Announcements; First Timer's Drawing, Raffle Drawings, and 50/50 Drawing!
- 8:15 p.m. Live Auction Begins!
- 9:15 p.m. Live Auction Ends!
- 9:15 p.m. Pay and Pickup area opens to collect perishable winning items.
- 9:45 p.m. Final Sing Along and Farewell

General Rules

1. All sales are final. There will be no exchanges or refunds on items by donors or UUCF except where specified or if the donor is unable to fulfill his or her obligation as described.
2. Values for the items being auctioned are based on the donors' estimates and are not validated by the Auction Team or UUCF for tax purposes. The Auction Team will provide donors a list of the items donated but will not assign a value for tax purposes. Donors must establish the value of their donation for tax purposes.
3. Unless otherwise specified, all auction items and services must be used within 1 year from the date of the auction.
4. Tangible items may be retrieved from the Commons area starting the day after the auction, Sunday, March 4, and must be picked up by Sunday, March 18.

5. By their purchase, the buyer waives any claim of liability against the donor of the item.
6. Under IRS guidelines, only the amount paid that exceeds the donor value is considered to be a charitable contribution. Please consult your tax adviser.

Silent Auction Bidding

1. Each item in the Silent Auction has a bid card attached to a table or wall. To place a bid, stick one of your bid stickers next to the pre-printed amount on the bid card.
2. Each new bid must be for the next-higher, pre-determined bid increment on the bid card. You may bid higher if you want to increase the amount you are bidding. Bids will be disqualified if they are less than the minimum bid or the minimum raise is not in the pre-printed increment.
3. When bidding on events with multiple winners, numerous bidders may possibly bid the same amount. The top number of bidders according to the number of available spots are the winning bidders.
4. When you are bidding on an event with multiple winners possible, cross out your previous bid(s) when you make a new bid if you ONLY want the new bid to be considered. This will prevent you from winning multiple spots if this is not your intention.
5. Only an auction official may nullify a bid; the closing bid(s) highlighted by the auction official constitutes the winning bid(s).
6. Under no circumstances may a bid card be removed from the bidding table or wall, except by an auction official.

Live Auction

1. The live auction will begin at 8:15 p.m. and will continue until all items have been auctioned.
2. Items may or may not be sold in the order shown in the catalog. The auctioneer may combine or change the order of items at their discretion.

3. Bidders will be acknowledged by the auctioneer. The auctioneer has sole final discretion in all matters related to the bidding on the live auction items, including acknowledging the high bidder.
4. Have a great time!

Raffles

This year you will have the opportunity to win several Chance Raffle prizes. Buy tickets from our raffle ticket sellers. Tickets are $1/ticket and 6 tickets for $5. Place one side of each ticket into the Raffle Ticket Bowl of your choice. They will be located at the front of the Sanctuary. Each bowl will be marked with the prize you could win. Before the live auction starts, our emcees will draw the lucky tickets. You MUST be present to win.

There will also be a 50/50 Drawing for a cash prize based on the size of the pot. Tickets for this drawing will be a different color from those for the other raffles. You can also buy the 50/50 tickets from our raffle ticket sellers. Tickets are $10 each. You MUST be present to win.

Those attending the auction for the first time are entered into a First-Timer's drawing for a special raffle prize! You MUST be present to win.

We're glad you joined us at this year's Auction!

106	Chocolate for a cause!	Quantity: 1
This basket contains chocolate, wine and a $30 Gift Certificate to Cameron's Chocolates! Guilt-free chocolate was once just a dream for lovers of sweetness everywhere, but Cameron's Chocolates is here! These remarkable chocolates are made with love and devotion by a wonderful group of young adults and volunteers. These young adults have been dealt some wild cards, which add challenges to their daily lives. Some were born with genetic disorders, some with autism spectrum disorder, and some with undefined intellectual or physical disabilities. But they all share a love of life and an appreciation of what it means to have meaningful employment at Cameron's Chocolates. We promise you'll taste the love in every single bite. Donor: Jennifer Damashek
107	Authentic Homemade Hungarian Dinner for 6	Quantity: 1
It would be my pleasure to cook an authentic homemade Hungarian dinner for you and 3 of your guests. I am a first-generation American, raised by refugees who escaped after the Hungarian Revolution of 1956. I've been preparing, enjoying and refining these Hungarian dishes for decades and would be thrilled to share them with others. Dinner will include Chicken Paprikás, Hungarian Stuffed Cabbage or Stuffed Peppers, Cucumber Salad and perhaps a soup, appetizer and a sweet treat. The meal could be prepared for fresh or frozen delivery. I will coordinate with the winner(s) to schedule the dinner at a mutually agreeable time (preferably a weekend between April and October 2018). I have adjusted these recipes to accommodate my own food sensitivities to dairy and pork, and I would be happy to discuss the possibilities of accommodating some dietary restrictions. (But no promises!) However, the meal could also be prepared "by the book" if so desired. Wine is not included, but I am happy to make recommendations if the winner chooses to provide their own. Jó étvágyat! Donor: Krisztina Roder
108	Dinner for Two, Prepared for You	Quantity: 1
I will prepare a five-dish meal, complete with a bottle of wine, for you and one other and deliver it to you ready to serve on the Saturday or Sunday we agree on. I'm a good amateur chef and have served meals inspired by various world cuisines. My only restriction is that I don't prepare red meat, and I will work with your dietary restrictions. Gluten free? Try Thai soup with tofu and rice noodles. No dairy? Have a deliciously creamy avgolemono (Greek chicken soup with lemon). No poultry? How about my own "orange soup" with roasted vegetables and blood orange juice? And that's just the soup course! We'll agree on the menu ahead of time. Donor: Meg Harrelson
109	Caboose Growler and 12 Fill Ups	Quantity: 1

328	Flamingo Flamboyance Insurance	Quantity: 99
Do you think your UUCF friends would find it highly amusing to fill your yard with flamingos? Are you worried that your Homeowners Association would frown upon a Flamingo Flamboyance on your deck? Would it be prudent of you to prevent your friends from making the cold winter feel better by piling flamingos in the snow rather than build you a snowman? If any of the above are true, you might feel the need for Flamingo Flamboyance Insurance. If you live in Fairfax County,

the UUCF Youth are at complete liberty to "flamboy" your yard with flamingos, UNLESS, you have insurance against it. Purchase your policy today! Donor: UUCF Youth

334	Ship in a Bottle	Quantity: 1
A copy of the Prince de Neufchatel in a bottle. The Prince de Neufchatel was a fast sailing United States schooner-rigged privateer, built in New York by Adam and Noah Brown in approximately 1812. She is a fine example of the peak of development of the armed schooner. Neufchatel operated in mainly European waters, damaging British shipping during the War of 1812. Noted for her speed, at one time she outran 17 men-of-war. In 1813, operating in the English channel, she took nine British prizes in quick succession. She also delivered a crushing defeat to the boats of a British frigate that tried to capture her. The British finally captured her in December 1814; she was broken up in 1815. Donor: Sue Inabnitt

409	Crappy Dinner Returns!	Quantity: 12
A 2015 mothering.com article by Kelley Powell introduced us to the idea of "crappy dinners." She described her attempts to drop pretense and stress and to increase the connections with friends in her life. Her crappy dinner rules are: 1) No housework is to be done prior to a guest's arrival. 2) The menu must be simple and not involve a special grocery shop. 3) You must wear whatever you

Playing Games
600	Pokemon Card Game Tournament	Quantity: 8
Join the Crowleys for a Pokemon Card Game Tournament! Whether you are an experienced player, an avid collector, a lover of card games, or just curious about Pokemon, this is the Auction Party for you. All ages are welcome, from kid to adult - though kids who have at least basic reading and math skills will be most successful. Bring Pokemon cards/decks, if you have them. We will help you build a deck, or you can use your already-created deck. If you do not have Pokemon cards, we will have some for you to use. We will have snacks and drinks, and everyone will go home with Pokemon cards to start or enhance their collection. NOTE - Sign-up is per person. It is fine if a parent-child team wants to sign up as one spot at the table. This is especially helpful if preschool- or kindergarten-aged children want to participate. Saturday, March 17, 2018. Donor: Meghan Crowley

Indian spices offer endless possibilities! Experience and learn about various wonderful spices central to different types of Indian cooking. Winning bidders: Bring an apron because you will all taste, smell, touch, toast, grind, pound and mix your way through the day to produce several spice blends you can use in your own cooking at home. You will depart with four ample bags of spices, an annotated bibliography of books and resources I have used, and some sample recipes to get you started. Lunch will be served as a grazing affair throughout the day so that we can continue to work. This event is planned for a prompt arrival at 10:00 AM and will go on until 4:00 PM (slightly earlier departure is possible, but prompt arrival is important). Diet and allergens. Lunch will include vegetarian options; dairy (yogurt and paneer cheese) will be involved; and naan (bread) is also included. Participants will be exposed to a variety of ingredients (sesame, legumes, etc.) that may be allergens for some. Previous Participant Quotation: “Everyone in our family loves Indian food, so I wanted to learn more about the spices, how they are prepared and what is the best way to use them. This auction item went beyond my expectations. I learned the Indian names for the English whole spice names, instructions for grinding the spices, how to store them, given a list of starter recipes, website links and a bibliography of cook books too use. This event also included a lunch that was absolutely scrumptious. I am still thinking about it a year later.” Donor: Cathy Haight
1502	Chef Ed’s Cooking Lessons: Feasting at the Bottom of the Ocean Food Chain	Quantity: 16
Tuna, swordfish and salmon are examples of predators at the top of the food chain that are being overfished to extinction to satisfy our palates. It’s time for all of us to appreciate the treasures at the bottom of the food chain. The humble creatures that clean and filter the water and offer themselves to us as an eminently sustainable and delicious treat. Have you ever enjoyed steamed mussels, fried oysters, clam chowder, shrimp and grits, seared scallops? If so, this class is for you. Chef Ed will lead you on a culinary journey presenting several wonderful and easy preparations for each of these delights. You’ll leave this auction event enlightened, empowered and gastronomically fulfilled from an evening of talking, cooking, eating and sharing. In the Sanctuary kitchen. Friday, Nov 16, 2018. Donor: Ed Groark

Live Auction

2000	Dinner and Theater Package	Quantity: 1
"Love, understanding and tolerance can be found at the foundation of virtually all the great religions of the world." So it's no surprise that Godspell, from three-time Grammy and Academy Award winner Stephen Schwartz (Wicked, Pippin, Children of Eden), took the world by storm. However, due to its popularity, the musical has largely been relegated to being produced by high school and amateur theatres in recent years. NextStop Theater will bring exceptional talent, creativity, and exhilarating production values to this beautiful, happy, uplifting musical in our unique intimate space. NextStop's shows explore opposing and seemingly incompatible sides of big issues and ideas. "Our hope is by providing a relaxed and entertaining venue for the community to gather together and be immersed in stories highlighting diverse perspectives, that we can help break down barriers which divide." This package includes 4 tickets to Godspell and a $100 gift certificate to Clyde's in Reston Town Center for pre-theater dinner! Donor: NextStop Theater Company

2004	Political Scandals Private Guided Tour	Quantity: 1
Salacious political scandals are nothing new in Washington. We'll take you and your significant other or a friend on a private tour of some of Washington's notorious sites. Among other stops, we'll gaze up at the balcony where Washington Post reporter Bob Woodward signaled his secret Watergate source, "Deep Throat." We'll poke around in the alley behind the Capitol Hill townhouse where presidential candidate Gary Hart spent a campaign-ending weekend with a Miami model. And we'll stand on the edge of the Tidal Basin, where a nightclub stripper's date with a powerful House committee chairman ended in a famous midnight swim. You'll receive "dossiers" at each of the many stops -- and enjoy a happy hour cocktail at the bar in one of the Washington hotels that's seen more than its share of headline-making notoriety. Your hosts are Christine and Mark Stencel. Mark is a journalist who also co-authored a book about how the news media handles the private and financial indiscretions of those in public life.
