Ministers' Reports

Rev. David Miller

- David will speak at the Fairfax County School Board Meeting Thursday night. The topic is Family Life Education.
- David was one of four pastoral speakers at the James Madison High School graduation at Vienna Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Sarah Caine

- Sarah chaperoned two youth at Pride in DC.
- Pastoral Care Associates met last night working to get new members. They will cover while Sarah and David are out of town. Two people are cycling off of the council.
- Sarah is preparing to attend GA.

Old Business

The CT agreed to increase the snow removal budget for 2018-2019. Research indicates that approximately $2000 is needed per snow fall.

New Business

- Susan Bennett and Sharon Johnson provided a presentation about the UUA Pledge to the UUA Promise and Practice of Our Faith Campaign. They requested approval from the CT for an additional $4,000 to fulfill the pledge. They have received $2000 from Share the Plate. Events will be planned to raise funds. The total pledge is $6610.
- The Faithify campaign was approved.
- Potential topics for 2018-2019 PEC Evaluation are:
 - Caring & Wellness
 - Adult Programs
 - Youth Programs
- The CT discussed possible new members for the PEC Committee.
- The Fundraising Schedule was discussed and reviewed. The CT will continue to research fundraising activities to add to the schedule.
