Ministers' Reports

Rev. David Miller

- November 4th was an extremely busy day at UUCF. Rev. David welcomed Rumi Forum, led Sunday services, said goodbye to the UU Transylvanians, held a memorial service, dedicated the Peace Cairn and blessed children.
- Rev. David will direct staff leadership for the Cedar Lane Staff Retreat on Thursday, November 8th.
- The Hungarian Festival last Saturday was fun. Over 100 people attended.

Rev. Sarah Caine

- Rev. Sarah was in the field with the Army last week.
- Eighteen people signed up for newcomers orientation.

Pippin Whitaker

- Pippin had a good session with the youth on November 4th.
- The Young Adult brunch with the UU Transylvanians was a success.
- The Social Justice Council reformation meeting has been rescheduled for November 10th.

Old Business

- The revised CT goals were reviewed and discussed.
- Construction on the septic system is expected to begin once permits are received. It will likely occur between Thanksgiving and Christmas. The construction will not interrupt activity on campus.
- Staff Christmas bonuses were discussed.

New Business

- The CT talked about placement of signage on campus. The issue will be revisited at the next meeting.
- The CT reviewed a donation request.

Miscellaneous

- The next meeting will be held November 14th.
