$200 Political Scandals Private Guided Tour

Donated by Christine and Mark Stencel

Salacious political scandals are nothing new in Washington. We'll take you and your significant other or a friend on a private tour of some of Washington's notorious sites. Among other stops, we'll gaze up at the balcony where Washington Post reporter Bob Woodward signaled his secret Watergate source, "Deep Throat." We'll poke around in the alley behind the Capitol Hill townhouse where presidential candidate Gary Hart spent a campaign-ending weekend with a Miami model. And we'll stand on the edge of the Tidal Basin, where a nightclub stripper's date with a powerful House committee chairman ended in a famous midnight swim. You'll receive "dossiers" at each of the many stops -- and enjoy a happy hour cocktail at the bar in one of the Washington hotels that's seen more than its share of headline-making notoriety. Your hosts are Christine and Mark Stencel. Mark is a journalist who also co-authored a book about how the news media handles the private and financial indiscretions of those in public life.

But they all share a love of life and an appreciation of what it means to have meaningful employment at Cameron's Chocolates. We promise you'll taste the love in every single bite.

107 $30 Authentic homemade Hungarian dinner for 4 (Chicken Paprikás, Stuffed Cabbage, Cucumber Salad and more)

Donated by Krisztina Roder

2 available.

It would be my pleasure to cook an authentic homemade Hungarian dinner for you and 3 of your guests. I am a first-generation American, raised by refugees who escaped after the Hungarian Revolution of 1956. I've been preparing, enjoying and refining these Hungarian dishes for decades and would be thrilled to share them with others. Dinner will include Chicken Paprikás, Hungarian Stuffed Cabbage or Stuffed Peppers, Cucumber Salad and perhaps a soup, appetizer and a sweet treat. The meal could be prepared for fresh or frozen delivery. I will coordinate with the winner(s) to schedule the dinner at a mutually agreeable time (preferably a weekend between April and October 2018). I have adjusted these recipes to accommodate my own food sensitivities to dairy and pork, and I would be happy to discuss the possibilities of accommodating some dietary restrictions. (But no promises!) However, the meal could also be prepared "by the book" if so desired. Wine is not included, but I am happy to make recommendations if the winner chooses to provide their own. Jó étvágyat!

108 $75 Dinner for Two, Prepared for You

Donated by Meg Harrelson

409 $40 Crappy Dinner Returns!

Donated by Cunningham-Bowen Family and Ian Hochberg and Kathy Smerke

12 available.

A 2015 mothering.com article by Kelley Powell introduced us to the idea of "crappy dinners." She described her attempts to drop pretense and stress and to increase the connections with friends in her life. Her crappy dinner rules are: 1) No housework is to be done prior to a guest's arrival. 2) The menu must be simple and not involve a special grocery shop. 3) You must wear whatever you happen to have on. The author wrote, "There is an old proverb that says, 'Tension is who you think you should be. Relaxation is who you are.' Crappy dinner is all about placing priority on what truly matters, and about accepting life for all of the beautiful, crappy things it throws your way." In that spirit, we invite friends of all ages to join us for dinner! Bidding is per adult attendee; children can attend at no charge. "My wife and I had a lovely, casual evening of great food and conversation. A craptastic time was had by all!"

Donated by Sue Inabnitt

A copy of the Prince de Neufchatel in a bottle. The Prince de Neufchatel was a fast sailing United States schooner-rigged privateer, built in New York by Adam and Noah Brown in approximately 1812. She is a fine example of the peak of development of the armed schooner. Neufchatel operated in mainly European waters, damaging British shipping during the War of 1812. Noted for her speed, at one time she outran seventeen men-of-war. In 1813, operating in the English channel, she took nine British prizes in quick succession. She also delivered a crushing defeat to the boats of a British frigate that tried to capture her. The British finally captured her in December 1814; she was broken up in 1815.

Indian spices offer endless possibilities! Experience and learn about various wonderful spices central to different types of Indian cooking. Winning bidders: Bring an apron because you will all taste, smell, touch, toast, grind, pound, and mix your way through the day to produce several spice blends you can use in your own cooking at home. You will depart with four ample bags of spices, an annotated bibliography of books and resources I have used, and some sample recipes to get you started. Lunch will be served as a grazing affair throughout the day so that we can continue to work. This event is planned for a prompt arrival at 10:00 AM and will go on until 4:00 PM (slightly earlier departure is possible, but prompt arrival is important).

1501 $30 Indian Spice Grinding

Diet and allergens. Lunch will include vegetarian options; dairy (yogurt and paneer cheese) will be involved; and naan (bread) is also included. Participants will be exposed to a variety of ingredients (sesame, legumes, etc.) that may be allergens for some.

Previous Participant Quotation:

“Everyone in our family loves Indian food, so I wanted to learn more about the spices; how they are prepared and what is the best way to use them. This auction item went beyond my expectations. I learned the Indian names for the English whole spice names, instructions for grinding the spices, how to store them, given a list of starter recipes, web site links and a bibliography of cook books too use. This event also included a lunch that was absolutely scrumptious. I am still thinking about it a year later.”

1502 $50 Chef Ed’s Cooking Lessons: Feasting at the Bottom of the Ocean Food Chain

1706 $80 The 4 time international champion Alexandria Harmonizers Chorus 70th Anniversary "Greatest Hit's Platinum Show" with guest chorus, Toronto Northern Lights

Donated by Rob Barnovsky

If you think that barbershop music is limited to straw hats and songs from the early 1900s, you haven't heard The Alexandria Harmonizers. For the past 70 years, this 4 time international gold medalist (19 time medalist) a'capella chorus performs and dances to everything from Broadway musicals and pop tunes to rock and roll, and occasionally a barbershop love song or up tune.

They've been guest performers at the Kennedy Center Honors multiple times and performed at the Supreme Court, Carnegie Hall and the anniversary of the Invasion of Normandy. They even sang at our church for John (JP) Pence's memorial service several years ago.

Now celebrating their 70th year, the Harmonizers are performing a one time only "Greatest Hits Show" at Schlesinger Auditorium in Alexandria, bringing in international medalist performers, the Toronto Northern Lights chorus and quartets to make some of the most incredible music you've EVER heard. Feel free to check us out on Facebook or at Harmonizers.org. Free parking at event. Guaranteed to put a smile on your face and a "WOW" on your lips.

Creative Endeavors - Second chance

1002B $50 Create Your Own Greeting Cards

Donated by Jennifer Yi

5 available.

Make at least 4-5 different designs of greeting cards while enjoying adult drinks and light refreshments! No creative bone in your body? No problem—just follow the examples! Want to make something uniquely yours? Use the examples to get ideas and then create your own designs! The afternoon will start with a demonstration of 4-5 designs, and then you can work at your own pace to make your homemade cards. All supplies provided. (Photo for demonstration only; card designs have not been finalized.)
Saturday, July 20, 1:30 – 4:30 p.m. 5 spots still available!

Days Out - Second chance

1101A $20 Take a Hike! (For Climate Change)

Donated by David Culp (on behalf of the Climate Action Group, with Bruce Wyman and Catherine Ives)

5 available.

Join the UUCF Climate Action Group for a healthy lunch and a hearty hike around the Great Falls Billy Goat Trail, enjoying clean air (while it lasts), and the pristine setting of the Carderock Recreation Area in the Potomac River. (Yes, you do have to get drive to the park, but consider carpooling in someone's hybrid!) Depending on the group that bids on this ecofriendly auction item, we'll probably hike from 3 to 6 miles at a moderate pace, over 2 to 3 hours, with a few breaks. Lunch and snacks and drinks will be provided by the Climate Action Group. The Billy Goat sections are rocky and the towpath is smooth gravel. If you've never been to Carderock, it's one of the area's hidden natural resources. Catherine Ives, Bruce Wyman, and Dave Culp will be your trail guides. Saturday, May 12, 10:30 am (Rain Date Saturday May 19). 5 spots still available!

Eat, Drink, and Be Merry I - Second chance

400A $20 Howlin' Halloween Party

Donated by Barb Brehm and Karen Rasmussen

5 available.

Put on your best ghostly attire as we celebrate Halloween with festive food and libations. On Saturday, October 27 (from 7 to 9 PM) we'll be holding a gathering for all eerie creatures (people too) for some tacky fun, and prizes will be awarded for the most original and most funny Halloween costumes. We'll have a horror flick trivia contest and bob for apples! Come prepared to laugh and howl. Five spots still available!

404A $15 Miyazaki Double Feature and Dinner Donated

by Liz Kidd

2 available.

Enjoy two Hayao Miyazaki animated classics, "Spirited Away" and "Howl's Moving Castle." In between showings, we'll enjoy an Asian-themed dinner. Firm age limit of 10 years old and up please - these movies can be a little scary. (Allergy note - our home has cats and a guinea pig!) March 17, 2018. 4pm-9pm. TWO spots still available! Online bidding for this item ends earlier than other online items (bidding ends 3/11) as the event is soon (3/17).

405A $40 Hobo Camp Cookout

Donated by Marie & Mark Lenker

Jump off the train at Rock Garden Drive, then follow the hobo symbols to the hobo camp. Eat hobo fare around a campfire with fellow travelers, swap stories (Balderdash style!) and ballads of the road. Wear your torn, patched and funky. Shoes optional. Don't forget the knapsack with your cup, tin plate, and spoon. Event will take place inside our home with a cookout on the grill! Saturday evening Oct 13, 2018, 5:30-9:30. ONE spot still available!

406C $30 Chestnuts Roasting on an Open Fire Donated

by Nancy Rooney and Dave Anderson

4 available.

Take your Christmas spirit to a new high with Christmas carols and Christmas cheer! Join us as we sing around the piano while Dave Anderson plays your favorite Christmas carols at Dave and Nancy's home. Enthusiasm required, but not any special singing skills! Christmas cheer, Christmas cookies and tasty snacks provided, along with plenty of Christmas songbooks. Sunday, December 16, 2018 from 7 pm to 9pm. Three spots still available!

407A $20 Board Bites

Donated by UUCF Board of Directors

Playing Games - Second chance

600A $5 Pokemon Card Game Tournament

Donated by Meghan Crowley
3 available.

Join the Crowleys for a Pokemon Card Game Tournament! Whether you are an experienced player, an avid collector, a lover of card games, or just curious about Pokemon, this is the Auction Party for you. All ages are welcome, from kid to adult - though kids who have at least basic reading and math skills will be most successful. Bring Pokemon cards/decks, if you have them. We will help you build a deck, or you can use your already-created deck. If you do not have Pokemon cards, we will have some for you to use. We will have snacks and drinks, and everyone will go home with Pokemon cards to start or enhance their collection. NOTE - Sign-up is per person. It is fine if a parent-child team wants to sign up as one spot at the table. This is especially helpful if preschool- or kindergarten-aged children want to participate. Saturday March 17, 2018. Three spots still available!
